The intended audience for this program includes medical librarians, nurses, educators, management staff and nursing students.

DATE: Wednesday, November 28, 2007
PLACE: New Jersey Hospital Association Conference Center*
760 Alexander Road
Princeton, NJ 08543
<http://www.njha.com/conferencecntr/html/mc.directions.aspx>
TIME: 9:30 am – 3:00 pm

This program is Cosponsored by: The Health Sciences Library Association of New Jersey (HSLANJ), Health Research and Educational Trust of New Jersey/NJHA and the Organization of Nurse Executives of New Jersey (ONE/NJ).

While finding evidence in the medical literature has become fairly standardized, finding the evidence in the nursing literature can be less straightforward. This class will include a basic overview and history of EBP in nursing, hierarchies of quantitative and qualitative evidence, formulating the question and finding the right resources, as well as covering aspects unique to nursing, such as qualitative meta-synthesis and EBP in nursing administration.

Instructors: Dolores Judkins, MLS, Head, Research & Reference Department, Oregon Health & Science University, Portland, Oregon.

Patrice O'Donovan, MLS, AHIP, Portland Campus Library Director, Linfield College School of Nursing and Health Sciences, Portland, Oregon.
